Dangerous Conditions Ahead...How to Prepare for Human Resources Emergencies

Tuesday, May 12, 2015

11:00 – 1:00pm

2nd Street Station

15 2nd Street SW, Watertown, SD 57201

Course Overview:

The presentation will include brief, practical information about how human resources professionals and business owners should respond to retaliation claims, employee discipline and the ADAA, difficult unemployment claims, and employee contract issues by reviewing four or five common, hypothetical labor and employment law scenarios.

About the Speaker:

KATHLEEN BARROW is the Resident Shareholder of the Rapid City, South Dakota office of Jackson Lewis P.C.

Ms. Barrow has designed welfare benefit plans and executive compensation arrangements, and has counseled sponsors and administrators of these types of plans, for fifteen years. She has appeared on behalf of clients before the national offices of the United States Treasury and the Department of Labor Employee Benefit Security Administration. She is admitted to practice law in Texas, Oklahoma, North Dakota, South Dakota, and the U.S. Tax Court. Ms. Barrow received her law degree with honors from the University of Oklahoma, College of Law in 1992, where she was a Managing Editor of the Oklahoma Law Review and a member of the Order of the Coif. She received her Masters in Business Administration degree in finance with high honors from Oklahoma City University in 2001. After law school, Ms. Barrow clerked for the Honorable David L. Russell, Chief Judge for the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma.
