During this Covid-19 Pandemic, HR Professionals are relying on fast and accurate resources to make daily, informed decisions. Your National SHRM Membership is providing these as part of your membership. Join Delight Deloney, a Field Services Representative for SHRM, for a webinar featuring the SHRM Website and Resources. She will walk us through all that National SHRM is doing for the HR Professional during this time and give us a review of the website and how to find all these resources. If you are currently not a National SHRM member, Delight will give you a preview of what information could be at your fingertips!

*You must be RSVP'ed by Monday, May 11, 2020 by 10 am to be included on the webinar. You will be emailed information on how to access early Tuesday morning.
