Ammie Michaels, MBA, SHRM-CP

Webinar

September 10th, 2024
4:00 – 5:00pm CST

Ammie Michaels is a seasoned business consultant and the founder of WolfpackHR, where she merges nearly two decades of experience in human resources with cutting-edge artificial intelligence (AI) strategies. With an MBA in Human Resources and multiple HR certifications, Ammie has a deep understanding of the challenges businesses face in today's rapidly evolving landscape. Her expertise lies in integrating AI into HR practices, helping companies streamline processes, enhance compliance, and improve overall efficiency.

Ammie's passion for innovation drives her to explore the transformative potential of AI in the workplace, making her a sought-after speaker and consultant. She has successfully guided numerous organizations through the complexities of modern HR, ensuring they stay ahead of the curve by leveraging AI-driven solutions. At the upcoming SHRM chapter meeting, Ammie will share her insights on the future of HR, demonstrating how AI can be a game-changer for businesses of all sizes.
